

Insights

Krieg DeVault LLP voted as best ranked law firm to work in the state of Indiana by the Indiana Chamber of Commerce

May 10, 2009

Indianapolis / Schererville, Indiana - The law firm of Krieg DeVault LLP is pleased to announce being named as one of Indiana's Best Places to Work by the Indiana Chamber of Commerce. Krieg DeVault, which ranked as the 8th Best Place to Work in Indiana for small and medium size companies, was presented their award last week in Indianapolis at the Indiana Chamber's Best Places to Work Awards Dinner.

Out of the 70 companies honored in the small, medium and large categories, Krieg DeVault's 8th place ranking was the best of any law firm in the state. This is the third year in a row that Krieg DeVault has been named to the Indiana Chamber's Best Places to Work list with this year marking their best placement.

"We appreciate being recognized as one of Indiana's premier companies to work for," said Michael Williams, Managing Partner at Krieg DeVault. "We value our employees and try our best to create a work environment that is enjoyable and understanding to life's everyday challenges. We are honored that our employees reflected their positive perception of our work environment in the Indiana Chamber's survey results."

Krieg DeVault LLP is a law firm with over 130 professionals representing a wide variety of local, regional and national clients. It is a general practice law firm with practice areas in corporate, banking, health care, estate planning, probate, tax, litigation, environmental, intellectual property, public finance, municipal and governmental affairs, among others. The firm has offices in Indianapolis, Carmel, Noblesville, Schererville, and Mishawaka, Indiana, Chicago Illinois, Atlanta, Georgia, and Boca Grande, Florida. Through its membership in Meritas, the firm's ability to assist clients reaches around the world.