Krieg DeVault's William Amberger Selected for Indianapolis Bar Association Leader Series

August 18, 2026

Krieg DeVault LLP is pleased to announce that William Amberger has been selected for the Indianapolis Bar Association's Bar Leader Series Class XXIII. The yearlong leadership development program is designed for talented early career attorneys and prepares participants to serve as leaders within the legal profession and their communities.

Open to IndyBar member attorneys in their third through tenth years of practice, the Bar Leader Series provides participants with opportunities to develop leadership skills, engage with prominent legal and community leaders, and explore long term opportunities for service and professional growth. The program also fosters meaningful connections among participants, creating a network of future leaders committed to addressing the needs of the Indianapolis community.

Members of Bar Leader Series Class XXIII were selected based on their leadership potential and commitment to professional and community involvement. Throughout the program, participants will engage with issues, organizations, and thought leaders that are critical to the continued success of Indianapolis while developing the skills and relationships necessary to lead effectively within the legal profession and beyond.
