Partner David E. Corbitt Appointed by Mayor Hogsett to Capital Improvement Board

January 19, 2016

Krieg DeVault is pleased to announce that Partner David E. Corbitt, Governmental Services Department Chair and member of the firm's Business, Public Finance and Governmental Affairs Practice Groups, has been selected by Mayor Joe Hogsett as one of six appointed members to the Capital Improvement Board ("CIB").

The board, which owns Bankers Life Fieldhouse, Victory Field, Lucas Oil Stadium and the Indiana Convention Center, oversees the city's relationships with pro sports teams. The CIB is controlled by the mayor, who appoints six of the nine total members.

"These individuals bring many years of civic experience to the CIB," Hogsett said in a prepared statement. "As stewards of some of Indianapolis' great public facilities, I know they will continue to invest in our city's growth and care for the unique assets that make Indianapolis a thriving destination for millions of visitors each year."

Dave Corbitt is a Partner at Krieg DeVault LLP, serving as the Governmental Services Department Chair and a member of the firm's Business, Public Finance and Governmental Affairs Practice Groups. His practice is concentrated primarily in municipal finance, economic development, governmental affairs and the transactional areas of mergers and acquisitions, securities and general corporate law and strategy. Furthermore, he has spent a significant amount of time assisting clients in respect of a variety of general corporate matters including, but not limited to, matters concerning corporate governance, choice of entity, dissolution, corporate finance, corporate control and operation with specific emphasis on the needs of privately and closely held businesses.

Mr. Corbitt has also had primary responsibility as bond counsel, underwriter's counsel, disclosure counsel and general counsel in respect of a variety of bond financing transactions; served as principal negotiator and representative in connection with economic development transactions and projects; negotiated, developed and prepared policies and procedures relating to tax increment financing and related funding and projects between municipal departments and private business; and provided guidance to clients with respect to laws, rules, regulations and regulatory matters relating to tax increment financing, new market tax credits, charter schools, governmental affairs and procurement, master and sub-franchise arrangements, public-private partnership, legislative action, banking, investment advisers and broker/dealers.
