

Insights

Comparisons of the Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL) and the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP)

April 1, 2020

By: Robert A. Greising and Corben A. Lee

[UPDATED APRIL 17, 2020] On March 27, 2020, President Trump signed the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (the “Act”) which provides significant economic benefits to small businesses. Two of the most economically beneficial programs available to small businesses are the Economic Injury Disaster Loan (“EIDL”) and the expansion of loans under Section 7(a) to provide for the Paycheck Protection Program (“PPP”). Below is a comparison of these two programs.

Consideration	Economic Injury Disaster Loan	Paycheck Protection
Where do I apply?	Through the SBA at sba.gov/disaster	Through an existing program can be found at sba.gov/loans/ppp . It is recommended to contact your lender whether they are participating.
How long does the program last?	Until December 31, 2020, but all funds are gone until Congress appropriates additional funding.	Until June 30, 2020, but all funds are gone until Congress appropriates additional funding.

When can an applicant apply?	Now.	Now for small business April 10 th for independent individuals. All other regulated le as soon as they are Program proceeds v basis.
Who is eligible?	All businesses, cooperatives, nonprofits, ESOPs, sole proprietorships, independent contractors, and tribal business concerns with less than 500 employees.	Same, except vetera
What fees are charged?	Fees are waived.	Fees are waived.
What is the maximum size of the loan?	Up to $2,000,000, although further guidance is expected on the max amount being reduced due to the number of applicants and funds available.	The lesser of (i) $10 monthly payroll cost taken out for an EID 2020 if the applicant PPP. Payroll costs are de cash tips, payments sick leave, insurance or local payroll taxes compensation that a the calculation of pa non-cash benefits. F income is treated cli
What is the maximum term of the loan?	Up to 30 years	2 years after loan fo
What is the maximum interest rate of the loan?	3.75% for businesses; 2.75% for nonprofits	1.0%

Will the loan be forgiven?	No loan forgiveness, but you may request an emergency advance up to $10,000 (at $1,000 per employee up to 10 employees) that is not required to be repaid regardless of whether you qualify for and receive a loan.	Yes. Subject to any the loan will be forgiven expenses that are in place as of February 15, 2020, for rent, or utilities. The SBA has provided the forgiven amount will
Can loan forgiveness be reduced?	Not applicable.	Yes. The forgiveness amount must be based on the number of employees you maintain the same number of employees after you close on the loan from February 15, 2019 until June 30, 2020. The period chosen for the forgiveness amount must be the same amount of wage and salary or more compared to the same period in 2019. Any reductions in the wage and salary that occurred during the period in 2020 will not be included in the forgiveness amount if the reduction is more than 50%.
What can the loan proceeds be used for?	Fixed debts, payroll, accounts payable and other debts that would have been paid but for the disaster occurring.	Payroll costs, health care, mortgage interest, rent, utilities, and other fixed debts prior to February 15, 2020.
When is the first loan payment due?	One year after the closing of the loan. Interest accrues during the deferment period.	Six months after the end of the deferment period.
Are personal guaranties or collateral required?	For any loans in excess of $200,000 personal guaranties are required. The SBA will also place a UCC lien against the assets of the business.	No.
Do I have to be turned down by other lenders to be eligible under this program?	No.	No.

Krieg DeVault is committed to helping you and your business during these unprecedented times. With your needs in mind, we have established a COVID-19 Resource Center to assist you through this process.

If you have any further questions, comments or concerns, please feel free to contact Robert A. Greising, Corben A. Lee or a member of our Business, Acquisitions & Securities team.