Thomas N. Hutchinson elected to Krieg DeVault's Four Member Executive Committee

January 2, 2014

Krieg DeVault is pleased to announce that Thomas N. Hutchinson has recently been elected to Krieg DeVault's four member Executive Committee. Mr. Hutchinson, a Partner with Krieg DeVault and member of the firm's Health Care and Business practices, brings more than 17 years of legal experience into his new leadership role with the firm. Mr. Hutchinson most recently served as the firm's Health Care Practice Chair, a position which he vacated due to his new responsibilities as an Executive Committee member.

"I am grateful for the opportunity to serve alongside our Managing Partner Mike Williams and fellow Partners Tom Costakis and Mike Messaglia on the firm's Executive Committee," said Tom Hutchinson. "I look forward to continuing to build on the long-standing values, client service, and leadership our firm is known for."

About Thomas N. Hutchinson

Tom Hutchinson concentrates his practice on the business aspects of health law. He regularly advises hospitals and physicians throughout the country on acquisition strategies. Tom also regularly works with a variety of health care joint ventures, including surgery centers, cancer centers, and imaging centers. His experience includes structuring transactions to comply with the Anti-Kickback and Stark laws and other regulations unique to the health care industry. Tom also works with many other types of companies that are in the business of health care, including medical suppliers, retirement community developers, testing facilities, and many more.

Mr. Hutchinson is the current Board Chair of the Indianapolis-Marion County Public Library Foundation and a past Chair of the Health Law Sections of the Indianapolis and Indiana State Bar Associations. He is a graduate of the Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law in Indianapolis.
