Amy D. Yeskie Elected as Vice President of the Indiana Paralegal Association

August 2, 2022

Krieg DeVault is pleased to announce that Amy D. Yeskie has been elected as Vice President of the Indiana Paralegal Association (IPA). The swearing-in ceremony was held at the Skyline Club on July 20, 2022. For the past five years, Amy has served as the IPA's Membership Director.

About the Indiana Paralegal Association

The Indiana Paralegal Association was formed in 1979 as the Indianapolis Paralegal Association in response to the growing need for an organized professional association for paralegals. In 1983, the name was changed to the Indiana Paralegal Association, Inc. and was incorporated as a not-for-profit corporation. IPA is a grass roots organization whose policy is developed by consensus of the majority of its membership. It has grown from an organization consisting of a small handful of pioneer members to the successful collaboration of several hundred paralegals.
