C. Daniel Motsinger named Emeritus Director of the American Board of Certification of Bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights Attorneys

December 17, 2012

Indianapolis, Indiana - The law firm of Krieg DeVault LLP is pleased to announce that Partner C. Daniel Motsinger has been elected as an Emeritus Director of the American Board of Certification of Bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights Attorneys ("ABC"). Mr. Motsinger previously served as Chair of ABC's Board of Directors in 2011.

The ABC, headquartered in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, is the nation's premier legal specialty certification organization, having certified nearly 1,000 attorneys as specialists in business bankruptcy, consumer bankruptcy and creditors' rights law. As a non-profit organization, it is committed to providing progressive and responsible leadership in the field of legal specialization. Furthermore, ABC certification encourages attorneys to strive toward excellence, and recognizes those attorneys who have met the rigorous ABC certification standards. Since the ABC's inception, its goal has been to provide meaningful information to consumers of bankruptcy law services.

Mr. Motsinger's experience in creditors' rights, bankruptcy and commercial law spans more than 30 years. He chairs the firm's Creditors' Rights and Bankruptcy Practice Group. Mr. Motsinger has represented creditors, debtors and investigators in litigation and bankruptcy cases throughout the United States. He testified before the Congressionally-appointed National Bankruptcy Review Commission in 1997. He served as a judicial intern and temporary research assistant to the Administrative Assistant to the Chief Justice, Supreme Court of the United States.
