May 31, 2020

Krieg DeVault is pleased to announce that Partner David A. Adams has been named as the firm's new Real Estate and Environmental Practice Group Chair. Adams, who joined the firm in March 2019, will now lead the firm's growing real estate practice previously led for the past five years by Partner Paul G. Reis, who will remain with the firm.

Throughout his 19-year career, Mr. Adams has focused his practice on representing commercial real estate developers, investors, lenders, landlords and tenants in connection with the development, financing, leasing, purchasing and selling of office, industrial, healthcare, multi-family and retail properties. He also has extensive experience representing business owners in connection with entity formation, the acquisition and sale of businesses, as well as the negotiation and structuring of complex supply, distribution, and other general business agreements.

"I am looking forward to leading the firm's growing real estate practice," said Adams. "It is an honor to work with such a great group of dedicated and talented professionals working toward the common goal of finding innovative real estate solutions for our clients."

Adams is active in his community, currently serving on the Board of Directors for School on Wheels, and is a member of the Indianapolis, Indiana State, and American Bar Associations. He is also a member of Krieg DeVault's Commercial Real Estate Lending Practice Group. Before joining Krieg DeVault, Mr. Adams spent his years in private practice and as in-house counsel with Lauth Group, Inc. He is a graduate of Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law and counsels clients from the firm's Carmel, Indiana office location.
