Libby Yin Goodknight Elected to Serve on the Legal Advisory Committee to the Indiana Legal Foundation

November 19, 2014

Krieg DeVault is pleased to announce that Partner Libby Yin Goodknight has been elected to serve on the Legal Advisory Committee to the Indiana Legal Foundation.

The Indiana Legal Foundation (ILF) defends businesses in legal cases involving such issues as product liability, taxation, labor relations, worker's compensation, unemployment benefits, insurance issues and environmental regulation.

Libby Yin Goodknight focuses her work in the areas of business and commercial litigation, with a significant emphasis on motion and appellate practice. Ms. Goodknight is a member of the Firm's Litigation Practice Group and serves as Chair of the Firm's Appellate Service Group. She has assisted clients with appeals in state and federal courts across the country and in the U.S. Supreme Court. She has represented amicus curiae parties before the Indiana appellate courts and the U.S. Supreme Court as well. Ms. Goodknight has experience in a wide range of litigation matters, including administrative law cases, shareholder and contract disputes, covenants not to compete, trade secret claims, antitrust litigation, issues involving RICO, financial institutions, securities fraud, and wage and hour class and collective actions. She has served as counsel in jury trials involving questions of negligence, breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duty, fraud, RICO violations, and toxic exposure. Ms. Goodknight originally joined Krieg DeVault in 2001 after clerking for the Honorable James S. Kirsch, the Honorable Sanford M. Brook (ret.), and the Honorable Edward W. Najam, Jr. of the Indiana Court of Appeals. She returned to Krieg DeVault in 2006 after practicing with the Denver, Colorado office of a large international law firm. Ms. Goodknight is active in Firm management and serves as Chair of the Associates Committee.
