Libby Yin Goodknight Selected as a Member of the 2022 Class of Distinguished Fellows of the Indianapolis Bar Foundation

April 25, 2022

Krieg DeVault is pleased to announce that Partner and Chair of the firm's Litigation and Dispute Resolution Practice, Libby Yin Goodknight, has been selected into the 2022 Class of Distinguished Fellows of the Indianapolis Bar Foundation. Ms. Goodknight was selected to the new class for meeting the standards of demonstrating exceptional community leadership and professionalism among Indianapolis area lawyers. She was officially recognized for this honor at a breakfast event on April 21 at Meridian Hills Country Club in Indianapolis.

The Indianapolis Bar Foundation, the charitable arm of the Indianapolis Bar Association, is a community-focused leader of the local legal profession. The Foundation was created to provide a charitable opportunity for members and friends of the Indianapolis legal community to donate time and money to provide support to central Indiana families of limited means experiencing legal problems and to help support law students and young lawyers and they embark on their careers.

Exceptional community leadership and professionalism among Indianapolis' lawyers is recognized through the Foundation's Distinguished Fellows program, which was formed in 1982. Each year, a limited number of attorneys are selected for recognition and demonstrate their commitment to the community with a gift to the endowment. The Foundation's ongoing grants and programs are maintained solely through the generosity and energy of its directors, fellows and donors.

About Libby Yin Goodknight

In addition to serving as Chair of the firm's Litigation & Dispute Resolution Practice, Ms. Goodknight handles a wide range of commercial litigation matters, including shareholder and other business disputes; covenants not to compete; trade secret enforcement; financial institution liability; trust and estate litigation involving corporate fiduciaries; constitutional claims; government contracting and bidder disputes; administrative agency actions; and class and collective actions, including those involving wage and hour issues and bank fees. She has served as counsel in jury trials involving questions of negligence, breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duty, fraud, and toxic exposure. The cases in which she has been engaged touch on a number of industries, including general corporate, health care, and financial services. Ms. Goodknight is active in firm management, having served three consecutive terms on the firm's five-member Executive Committee. She is also a long-time member and previous Chair of the Professional Personnel Committee and serves on the firm's Talent Acquisition Committee. From 2017-2019, she was recognized as one of the Top 25 Women Attorneys in the State by Indiana Super Lawyers.
