Amy Yeskie brings over 25 years of legal experience to Krieg DeVault LLP. She is an integral part of any litigation team and has been involved in a wide variety of matters, including complex business/commercial disputes, creditors' rights and bankruptcy actions, labor and employment law matters, and construction litigation.

Her knowledge and attention to detail make her perfectly suited to assist with managing the discovery process, reviewing and maintaining pertinent records and documents, and preparing for trial and other critical court hearings. Importantly, Ms. Yeskie is at the forefront of technological developments impacting today's litigation practice. She has significant experience and training in the use of Relativity, Westlaw, Drafting Assistant, Adobe, and the state and federal electronic case filing systems, and trains the attorneys and staff in the use of these tools.

Additionally, Amy is a member of the firm's Estate Planning and Administration Practice, where she navigates clients in the areas of estate planning, estate and trust administration, guardianships, and trust and estate litigation.
