Stephen Luehrs is an Associate in the firm's Litigation and Dispute Resolution Practice, focusing on general liability, professional liability, employment law, and insurance coverage matters. He represents businesses, individuals, and insurance carriers, offering strategic counsel in defending complex, high-exposure claims in both state and federal courts. Mr. Luehrs' experience spans all stages of litigation, from discovery and motion practice to trial strategy and resolution.

Before joining the firm, Mr. Luehrs honed his litigation skills while defending insurance carriers and self-insured clients nationwide. During law school, he served as a legal extern with the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas in Ohio, where he gained valuable insight into judicial processes.
